Robert A. Rebman, MBA, CPA

Instructor, Undergraduate Business Dept.

Roosevelt University, BSBA, Accounting

University of Chicago, MBA, Economics

Certified Public Accountant, licensed in Illinois

Teaching Experience

2007 – present	Instructor, Benedictine University Courses taught include Principles of Financial Accounting, Principles of Managerial Accounting, Cost Accounting, Federal Income Taxation, Microeconomics, both traditional and adult evening sections
2005 – present	Adjunct Faculty, Joliet Junior College Courses taught include Macroeconomics traditional and adult evening sections
2005 – 2007	Adjunct Faculty, Robert Morris College Courses taught include Accounting Principles, Managerial Accounting, and Macroeconomics traditional and adult evening sections
2004 – 2005	Adjunct Faculty, Wheaton College Courses taught include Accounting Principles and Macroeconomics
prior to 2004	Adjunct Faculty, Oakton Community College

Leadership Roles

Professional Experience:

1988 – present	Robert W. Rebman, Ltd., Glen Ellyn, IL Certified Public Accountant Independent public accountant engaged in accounting, taxation, and business consulting for individuals and closely held businesses.
1982 – 1988	NBD Arlington Heights Bank $300 million community bank Vice President and Cashier Joined the bank as Auditor, responsible for the internal audit function, including assessment of controls and risks, regulatory compliance, and evaluation of operating costs and efficiencies. Promoted to Vice President and Cashier, responsible for the management of the operating departments of the bank.
1977 – 1982	Ernst & Whinney/ Ernst & Young International public accounting firm Senior Auditor, responsible for field audit work in a variety of industries, including manufacturing and financial institutions.

Research Interests

- Corporate Social Responsibility and Reporting.
    - Impact of corporate reporting on the information set available to users of financial information, both globally and domestically
    - Types of metrics used by firms
    - Integration of corporate reporting and UN Global Compact and other standards of value, such as Catholic Social Thought
    - Integration of financial and responsibility reporting
    - Assurance by CPA firms
    - Standards and standards development
- Taxation and taxation policy
    - Types and methods of taxation and impact on macroeconomic results
    - Incidence of taxation and tax burden
    - Accumulated tax burden by income and wealth level

Selected Publications & Presentations

- “Stewardship in the Business Classroom: Corporate Sustainability Reporting, Values, and Opportunities in Undergraduate Accounting Education”, presented at the Lilly Fellows Regional Conference on "Faith, Science and Stewardship: Christian Pedagogy on the Environment" at Benedictine, 4/16/11; published in fall, 2011