Preclinical Level I Overview

As an introduction to teaching environment, this initial seminar provides candidates with an opportunity to participate in the classroom from a teacher’s point of view. The emphasis is on actively observing interactive strategies and analyzing the skills and processes needed to help K-12 students acquire foundational, conceptual, and procedural knowledge.