“The situation is crystal clear. The climate threat is undeniable. Yet the executive and legislative branches of government, concerned with short-term politics, are failing to protect young people.”
ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS: YOU AND YOUR STUDENTS are invited to join James Hansen and a panel of experts when they DISCUSS THE ISSUES AND CHALLENGES RELATED TO SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY AND THE POLITICIZATION OF SCIENCE AT:

"THE POLITICS OF SCIENCE"
2016 YOUTH GOVERNMENT DAY*
Thursday, April 21, 2016
8:30 a.m.-2:00 p.m.
Benedictine University
Daniel L. Goodwin Hall of Business Auditorium

Participation is free but limited to 600 students. Complimentary continental breakfast and buffet lunch will be provided.

For more information about Youth Government Day, visit ben.edu/ccl.

*Sponsored by Benedictine University’s Center for Civic Leadership, a nonpartisan, nonprofit institution aimed at improving civic engagement, leadership and education in Illinois. The Youth Government Day conference advances these goals by exposing high school students to the challenges facing Illinois and the United States in the 21st century.
