Program Overview

Master of Public Health (M.P.H.) program certificates are offered in Health Management and Policy, Health Education and Promotion, Emergency Preparedness and Epidemiology. These certificates provide the opportunity for career development for professionals who are looking to expand their knowledge in a specific area or want to familiarize themselves with a core graduate program curriculum. Students may apply up to 16 certificate credit hours to the M.P.H. degree at Benedictine University. All students beginning a certificate program must schedule an advising appointment with a M.P.H. program advisor by contacting admissions@ben.edu or (630) 829-6300.

The Benedictine M.P.H. program is fully accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health.
