A leader among the world’s experts...

...and teaching in our classrooms.

Benedictine University graduate students learn from leaders in their fields. Leaders like Therese Yaeger, a division chair of the country’s largest academic management organization, author of more than 100 papers, articles and books, and one of the foremost authorities on Organization Development.

Read the rest of Therese’s story at www.ben.edu/grad.

The graduate programs at Benedictine University

5700 College Rd. • Lisle, IL 60532 • (630) 829-6300