

The Springfield Campus extends library privileges to public patrons residing in: Sangamon, Christian, Montgomery, Menard and Logan counties. Public patrons must have a valid library card from their home library.

Patrons must be in good standing at their 'home' library. Call the Circulation Desk at (630) 829-6050 Lisle or (217) 718-5011 Springfield for additional details.

Borrower Confidentiality

In accordance with Illinois law, all library records relating to an individual user and his/her use of the library and its resources are confidential. These records may be consulted and used by library staff in the course of library operations. Records will not be disclosed to others except: upon the request or consent of the library user, pursuant to subpoena, court order or otherwise as required by law. Such disclosure may be made only by the University Librarian in consultation with appropriate University authorities.

Recalls

When an item is requested (or recalled) by another individual, the patron who currently has the item checked out will be emailed or mailed a recall notice.

Damaged Materials

There will be no charge for normal wear and tear on any item.

If an item is damaged by a patron so that further circulation is impossible, the patron will be charged the full replacement price of the item as well as an additional processing fee. The user responsible for the damage will have his/her library privileges suspended. Legal action may be taken if the damage is extensive.

The campus operational manager will determine the charge for damage that can be repaired or that does not render the item unusable.

Damage to material will be assumed to be accidental unless there is reason to believe otherwise. Patrons found defacing or destroying library materials shall be required to pay for a replacement copy

Claimed Returned Items

If a user receives a notice for a Benedictine University item that he or she believes has been returned, the user must notify the Library as soon as possible. Once notified, the Library will search for the item three times within sixty days. If an item is not found during this period, the patron will be held responsible for the lost item charges. Please see Library Fines and Fees Policy for additional information.

Returns

Equipment must be returned in person to a staff member at the Circulation Desk. All other borrowed materials may be returned at the Circulation Desk inside the library or deposited in the book drop. For additional details, see: Library Fines and Fees Policy.

Reserve Materials

Students

Reserve materials are available at the Circulation Desk or as electronic reserves online. The instructor sets the length of time that reserve items can be checked out, and some materials may be specified as “in-library use only”. These items may only be used in designated areas. Only Benedictine University students currently enrolled in classes may access print or electronic reserves.

Instructors

All items requested for reserve must conform to the Fair Use standards of current Copyright Law - A Reserve Request form must be completed by the instructor in order to add an item to reserve shelf or electronic reserves. Forms are located at the Circulation Desk and available on the Library website at: <http://www.ben.edu/library/faculty/reserves.cfm>.

To reserve videos for specific in-class showing, instructors should make reservations with the Library three weeks in advance. The Library cannot guarantee the availability of the video after that time.

For more information on reserve items please see Reserve Policy.

Equipment

Users must be a current Benedictine University student, faculty or staff member to check out equipment.

Users must present a valid Benedictine University ID to check out equipment.

Users must not have fines or suspensions attached to their library account to check out equipment.

The library does not take reservations for equipment.

Users are responsible for the safety and security of all equipment and accessories checked out to them. Stolen, lost or damaged items will result in a replacement charge equal to the cost of the equipment, plus a processing fee.

Users must return equipment to a library staff member in person at the Circulation Desk.

Users are responsible for logging out of accounts and clearing content and passwords before returning equipment. The library is not responsible for any files or personal information left on equipment.

The library is not responsible for any damage or loss of data that may occur directly or indirectly from the use of library equipment or for any subsequent loss or damage.

Borrowing Materials from Other Libraries

When Benedictine University faculty, staff or students need materials that are not available from the University Library or the I-Share catalog they may request the needed materials through Interlibrary Loan. Items available in participating I-Share libraries may be borrowed immediately by visiting the owning library with valid student ID. For more information please see the Interlibrary Loan policy.

Archive Access Policy

The Archives are open for regular hours on weekdays as posted to the library website, excluding holidays and University closures. Other times, such as evenings and weekends, may be available by appointment. Appointments are recommended to ensure adequate space and resources for visitors; contact the Archivist & Special Collections Librarian for appointments.

Archival collections do not circulate and researchers must use items on-site. Some materials may require handling under the supervision of Library staff. All archives use must have written approval. Forms for permission to access them are available on the Archives website. Items may be photographed (without flash) or scanned in accordance with copyright restrictions and other Archives policies if the condition of the item permits.
