Winter’s Safety

Winter Weather Advisory – Indicates snow accumulating 2 to 5 inches, or a combination of winter weather conditions will cause significant inconveniences and may be hazardous, especially to travelers. Use caution if you venture out!

Winter Storm Watch – Indicates severe winter weather such as heavy snow or ice is possible within the next day or two. Prepare now!

Winter Storm Warning – Indicates heavy snow (greater than 6 inches), heavy sleet (1/2 inch or greater), or a combination of winter weather hazards are highly likely or occurring. Stay indoors and adjust travel plans.

Wind Chill Advisory – Dangerous wind chills of minus 15 degrees to minus 24 degrees.

Wind Chill Warning – Life-threatening wind chills of minus 25 degrees or colder.

---

CSO Recognized

Chief Salatino recognized CSO Billups-Taylor with a Chief’s Commendation for his organization of National Night Out on August 5, 2014 at BenU.

ILTSB Police Executive Graduates

Sergeants Popp and Ferguson recently graduated from the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board, Police Executive Training Program. The program covered topics such as budgeting, scheduling, employee relations, supervision, project management, program proposals, and media relations.

This program was five weeks long and required students to conduct research, write collegiate papers, prepare and present presentations, and much more. Police Officers from all over northern Illinois attended this course. Please join us in congratulating them in the accomplishment of graduating from the Police Executive Training Program.

---

New Tech in University Police Cars

Sergeant Ferguson who is the technology manager in University Police replaced the old and space absorbing Laptops with IPADs, which take up less space and allow for the same functionality of the laptops (1/4 the cost), giving officers access to various Law Enforcement databases while in-vehicle.
UNIVERSITY POLICE PROGRAM BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

ASK A COP!

Sgt. Lloyd Popp and/or one of his officers will be in Kindlon Hall once a week for an hour (10:30am-11:30am). They will be available to answer student and employee questions about issues regarding: Illinois criminal law, Illinois rules of the road, attending court, personal safety, and any other issues you may wish to discuss.

M D A S S A G E E V E N T D U R I N G F I N A L S W E E K

University Police Officer Steve VanLoan arranged for free massages for students during finals week. A certified Massage Therapist provided massages in Krasa Hall for all those wishing to relax after a tough exam. Cookies and Punch were also provided to students to refresh and recharge.

Tara Treve (Pictured at left) of Massage Tarabella donated her time and skills to Benedictine University students to provide relaxation and stress relief during finals week for the Fall Term.

Officer Vanderploeg and C.S.O. Billups assisted the program throughout the morning as needed.