G4S STAFF RECOGNIZED

Emergency Dispatchers, Kyle O’dea and Claude Ortega were recognized by G4S Security Solutions, General Manager, Bill O’Brian.

They were recognized for preventing the flooding of the parking garage office spaces during a torrential rainfall, which caused drain overflow.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT EVENT
AUG 05, 2014 FROM 5:00PM-8:00PM IN THE NEUZIL LOT

“AMERICA’S NATIONAL NIGHT OUT, AGAINST CRIME”

A great night to get to know your neighbours, local, state and federal law enforcement officers, fire fighters and paramedics. There will be food, demonstrations, raffle, kids games, display of vehicles and equipment, and much, much more!

OFFICER RECOGNIZED

Officer Joe Kieca was recognized for completing an intensive financial crimes investigation over a period of many months leading to arrest warrants being issued for the suspect.

Joe recently left BenU for Sandwich Police Department, we all wish him well!

TEXT MESSAGE SCAMS

It is important for you to be aware of the tricks scammers and identity thieves are trying to use in order to get your personal information. One group that identity thieves continue to target is cell phone users with a scam called “smishing.” This is similar to emails scams of phishing and vishing. In all these scammers try to trick victims into revealing personal information like account numbers, social security numbers, debit card numbers and passwords.

Typical smishing scams appear to be from legitimate financial institutions, providing you a link to click on to verify personal information or calling a certain number which lead to other innocuous questions, which lead to information being revealed. Never respond to unsolicited calls or texts. Financial institutions always communicate security information at their facility face to face or by mail.

If you feel you have been a victim of a financial scam, contact your financial institution immediately.