In celebration of the non-traditional students of the Moser College of Adult and Professional Studies, we are hosting a laptop giveaway!

Any current Moser student who:

- Demonstrates financial need;
- Attends college after spending post-secondary education time in the workforce;
- Works full-time while attending school full-time or part-time;
- Is an adult and attends classes during the day or evening;
- Attends classes on-line or at extension sites;
- Balances work, family and school responsibilities;

is eligible to receive the laptop computer. Current Moser students meeting the above criteria are invited to write a one-two page essay about why you need a laptop and how it will help you in pursuit of your degree. Please submit your essay no later than November 6, 2009 to the attention of:

Name: Debra Kaszuba
E-mail ID <mailto:dkaszuba@ben.edu>

All entries will be reviewed by a committee of Moser Administrators. The winner will be notified via their BenU e-mail account on November 16, 2009.

Moser Trivia: Test your knowledge regarding the histories of Benedictine University and Moser College! Click on the Moser Trivia link. Current Moser students are eligible to participate. Submissions with all correct answers will be put into a daily drawing during Non-Traditional Student Week for one of five Benedictine University sweatshirts. Please submit your trivia answers via e-mail to Debra Kaszuba, dkaszuba@ben.edu, by November 6, 2009.

Prize Drawing: Each student currently enrolled in a degree-seeking program through Moser College will automatically be entered into a drawing to receive one of five laptop carrying cases. Winners will be notified via phone on November 16, 2009.

Disclaimer: By submitting an entry in any drawing or giveaway, you agree to allow your name and likeness to be published in national or local news papers, campus newsletters and/or magazines, and also posted to the Benedictine University web site.
