

MELANIE M. MOREY, Ed.D.

Dr. Melanie Morey is the Senior Director for Research and Consulting, NarrowGate Consulting, a division of the Catholic Education Institute, Bronx, NY. She has worked for thirty five years in the areas of education and administration. In the past ten years, she has become a recognized and sought after researcher and consultant to Catholic institutions of higher education as well other Catholic institutions. Her main areas of expertise comprise Catholic culture, leadership, institutional identity, and governance. Dr. Morey's most recent publication in collaboration with John J. Piderit, S.J., Catholic Higher Education: A Culture in Crisis (2006), has been praised as a major contribution to Catholic higher education. Reviewers describe it as a welcome resource at a time when many institutions are struggling to maintain and define their Catholic identity.

Dr. Morey is a graduate of Smith College. She holds a Master of Education from Boston College as well as a Doctorate and a Master of Education from the Harvard Graduate School of Education. She is the Co-Founder and Co-Director of Substantially Catholic Summer Seminar, a discipline based faculty seminar integrating the Catholic intellectual tradition. She is also a regular facilitator for the Council of Independent Colleges Summer Seminar for Presidents and Potential Presidents on the Intersection of Personal Vocation and the Office of the Presidency.
