Summer Fun Day Camp

Welcome to the 2009 Summer Fun Day Camp at Benedictine University! Boys and girls ages 5-13 are invited to spend a fun-filled summer with us. Our program is designed to make sure each camper has lots of fun every day of the week by participating in a variety of interesting activities.

Your child will enjoy our indoor and outdoor facilities every day during the nine weekly sessions of the camp.

We strive to provide a 10:1 ratio of campers-to-staff. The camp headquarters is located at the Dan and Ada Rice Center.

This is a great opportunity for your child to actively participate in many fun activities in the company of children their age. Our main goal is to provide a fun-filled, safe place for each and every camper.

What Will We Do?

buffet lunch • field games
arts & crafts • reading • computers fishing • water fun • movies and more!

Supplies

For protection and easy identification, campers are REQUIRED to wear their official camp T-shirt every day. All personal items will be stored in lockers while at camp. Campers will be responsible for their own items. Expensive and electronic devices are strongly discouraged. Trading cards are prohibited. Each child should bring a combination (not a key) lock. Also bring a towel and swimsuit for the daily water games. Please dress your child appropriately for the weather; shorts and gym shoes are recommended in good weather, but open toe sandals are discouraged. All items should be labeled and carried in a small tote bag/backpack. Each child is given one T-shirt the first day of their first week ONLY. Additional T-shirts are $10 each.

Lunch and Snacks

Lunch is provided each day from 1:00-2:00 p.m. in the University's cafeteria. Because of the later lunch time, we ask campers to bring a healthy snack with them to cure the mid-morning munchies! These are not refrigerated.

Conduct/Attendance

Campers are asked to conduct themselves in a constructive, positive manner so everyone will enjoy each and every day of fun! Active participation will be important for your child to have a successful day. Campers not participating or behaving poorly may be dismissed from camp. It is the parent's responsibility to notify the camp director if a child will miss a day. Please call the camp office at (630) 829-6088 if you will be late and bring late-arrivals to the Rice Center, where campers will then be brought to their group.
