The University Police Department welcomes in the New Year 2018. We are looking forward to a bright and energetic year. The New Year Baby is helping us kick off the year right. What’s your new years resolution? Here are some common top 10: 1.) Lose weight, 2.) Quit smoking, 3.) Quit drinking, 4.) Save money, 5.) Eat healthier, 6.) Spend more time with family, 7.) Travel, 8.) Have better sleep, 9.) Spend less time on social media, 10.) Enjoy life to the fullest. Certain things catch your eye, but pursue only those that capture the heart.
The North East Multi-Regional Training, Inc. (NEMRT) has invited Chief of Police Derek Ferguson to become a member of their Personnel Committee. NEMRT provides training programs to law enforcement personnel throughout the Chicagoland area. The Personnel Committee is directly responsible to the Advisory Board of Directors for the review of all significant personnel actions and providing advice to the Director on issues of filling vacancies, terminations, discipline, and professional development of personnel.
January 11th is National Human Trafficking Awareness. The University Police would like to invite you to an informative presentation on Human Trafficking. The presentation is open to the Benedictine community and public, 18 years and older.

Over 4 million men, women and children are driven into human trafficking globally. Benedictine University Police presents New Name, an organization dedicated to putting the brakes on Human Trafficking.
Join us for a presentation by Detective Rich Wistocki from Naperville Police Department High Technology Crimes Unit and Be Sure Consulting. Det. Wistocki authored the State of Illinois Sexting Law and the State of Illinois Sexual Exploitation of a Child law. He has participated in the United States Secret Service Chicago Electronic Task Force and works to train law enforcement, schools, parents, and children on internet crimes. He also recently presented at a TEDx conference in Naperville. For this event, Det. Wistocki will be speaking about cyber crimes and the use of technology in sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Det. Wistocki will share knowledge about these crimes, how to protect yourself and others, and how to report.
