In the coming months, the University Police will make changes to certain aspects of their uniforms. When the spring semester begins, all University Police uniformed personnel will be wearing a redesigned shoulder patch. Command staff will change the color of their stars and rank insignia from gold to silver.

Coffee with a Cop brings police officers and the community members they serve together–over coffee–to discuss issues and learn more about each other.

Domestic Violence is an issue that affects millions of people around the world. It comes in many forms, including physical, emotional, verbal, psychological, sexual, or economic abuse. This year Benedictine University will be working with community partners, including Family Shelter Service, Arab American Family Services, the YWCA, and Hamdard Center for Health and Human Services throughout the month of October to spread awareness about Domestic Violence. As a University community we will work diligently to prevent this abuse and also to respond to the needs of survivors. If you are interested in getting involved in this work you can contact our Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Grant Coordinator, Bernadette Muloski at bmuloski@ben.edu. If you are in a relationship that makes you feel unsafe please know that the University Police is here to help. For more information about resources available to you please check out the Resource and Referral Guide located on Title IX page of the University website.
