VI. Health Risks:

Health risks associated with the abuse of drugs or alcohol are numerous and can include mental and physical impairment. The abuse of drugs or alcohol can affect a person’s academic, professional and personal life. Drug or alcohol use can create a health and safety risk for the user and other members of the University. Additional information on other commonly abused drugs can be found at http://www.drugabuse.gov/sites/default/files/cadchart_2.pdf.

A. Alcohol:

Alcohol consumption causes a number of changes in behavior and physiology. Even low doses significantly impair judgment, coordination, and abstract mental functioning. Statistics show that alcohol use is involved in a majority of violent behaviors on college campuses, including acquaintance rape, vandalism, fights, and incidents of drinking and driving. Continued abuse may lead to dependency, which often causes permanent damage to vital organs and deterioration of a healthy lifestyle.

B. Illicit Drugs:

1. Cannabinoids (Marijuana, Hashish): The use of marijuana may impair or reduce short-term memory and comprehension, alter sense of time, and reduce coordination and energy level. Frequent users often have a lowered immune system and an increased risk of lung cancer. The active ingredient in marijuana, THC, is stored in the fatty tissues of the brain and reproductive system for a minimum of 28 to 30 days.

2. Hallucinogens: Lysergic acid (LSD), mescaline, and psilocybin cause illusions and hallucinations. The user may experience panic, confusion, suspicion, anxiety, and loss of control. Delayed effects, or flashbacks, can occur even when use has ceased. Phencyclidine (PCP) affects the section of the brain that controls the intellect and keeps instincts in check. Because the drug blocks pain receptors, violent PCP episodes may result in self-inflicted injuries.
3. Opioids (Heroin and Opium): The use of opioids causes the body to have diminished pain reactions. They can also be a respiratory depressant; cause drowsiness, impaired coordination, feeling of heaviness in the body and fatal overdose.

4. Stimulants (Amphetamines, Cocaine, and Methamphetamine): The use of stimulant drugs can cause a rapid or irregular heartbeat, tremors, reduced appetite, paranoia, loss of coordination, collapse, and death. Heavy users are prone to irrational acts, nasal damage and severe dental problems.

C. Prescription Drugs:

An FDA-approved drug which must, by federal law or regulation, be dispensed only pursuant to a prescription written by an authorized person. Some Common Types of prescription drugs are antianxiety drugs, antidepressants, antipsychotics, immunosuppressive and tranquilizers. The misuse and abuse of prescription drugs can have a variety of physical and psychological effects, and can result in addiction, accidental overdose and death. Mixing prescription drugs and alcohol or other drugs increases the likelihood of overdose and death.
