To assist you with our breakout sessions and offerings during the 10:15 -11:30 a.m. part of our morning, check out our breakout session descriptions to assist you in what to attend:

University Housing and Resident Life: Hear from our University Housing Staff and Resident Assistants to be prepared for move-in day, know the information that has been shared with your student via the housing portal or understand what the on-campus living experience can provide your student here at Benedictine.

Intercollegiate Athletics: Is your student committed to being a student-athlete here as part of our 19 intercollegiate athletics teams? This session can allow you to hear from our athletic administration regarding pre-participation paperwork and where to get all of your athletic information!

Financial Aid Next Steps: This session will provide you an understanding of next steps with financial aid, has your student received an outside scholarship, needs to know how to accept the offered student loans, or when does billing take place, this session will provide a broad overview of those next steps!

BenU 101: Navigating Life as an Eagle: Your student has a wide variety of resources available to them for their academic, personal and professional growth. This session can allow you to hear about those free resources we provide through the counseling center, health services office, ACE Center and more...

BenU Eats: Whether your student is living on campus or commuting to Benedictine, make sure that you take advantage of this session to understand the different dining experiences we provide, how to purchase a meal plan, and more.

Thanks for attending Student Orientation and Readiness
We look forward to seeing you on campus in August!
