

The one-year pass rate for the registration examination for dietitians (RDN) of the graduates of the undergraduate Didactic Program in Nutrition and Dietetics in 2019 was 100%.

The one-year pass rate for the registration examination for dietitians (RDN) of the graduates of the undergraduate Didactic Program in Nutrition and Dietetics in 2018 was 94%.

The one-year pass rate for the registration examination for dietitians (RDN) of the graduates of the undergraduate Didactic Program in Nutrition and Dietetics in 2017 was 100%.

Over a 3-year period, the average one-year pass rate for the registration examination for dietitians (RDN) of the graduates of the undergraduate Didactic Program in Nutrition and Dietetics is 98%.

The National Match Rate Standard is at 80%

Reported by Dr. Paula M. Sochacki on 10.13.20

Dr. Paula M. Sochacki, EdD, MPH, RDN LDN
Benedictine University
Nutrition Department DPD Director
5700 College Rd, KN 224G
psochacki@ben.edu
Lisle, IL 60532