

Preparation for Occupational Therapy School

	Required or recommended	Clarification	Recommended BenU course(s)	Alternate BenU Course(s)
Biology	Biology with lab (2 Semesters)	A sequence of courses representing a full academic year curriculum with associated labs.	BIOL 1197, 1198, 1199
Anatomy*	One semester (3-4 semester hours) generally required	Course with lab	BIOL 1157, 1158	BIOL 3216 & BIOL 3217*
Physiology*	One semester (3 hrs) recommended	Course with lab
General Chemistry	Not typical, but may be required required	Consult individual school requirements	CHEM 1113 & 1114	CHEM 1115
Math	One semester college algebra; one semester statistics.	A sequence of courses representing a full academic year curriculum.	MATH 1110 MATH 1150	BIOL 2229
English	One year (6-semester hours) required (most)	Specifics may vary, but one year is generally required, sometimes including distribution of writing and literature courses	WRIT 1101, 1102 COMM 1110
Psychology and Soc. Sci	Introductory and lifespan training or more	Most schools require introductory sociology and psychology, and an additional developmental psychology (lifespan), or other social science. Consult individual schools for specific prereqs.

*One-year Anatomy and Physiology sequence with lab meet these requirements or are listed as required at many schools (sophomore level or higher; general Bio or Chem for science majors preferred)

ALWAYS CONSULT THE AMERICAN OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSOCIATION (AOTA) FOR SCHOOL-SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS