

Compliance Matters...Important compliance issues that matter to all employees of Benedictine University.

See something? Hear something? Know something --about misconduct in the workplace?

Should you become aware of any act or omission which you think violates the law or University policies or procedures, we urge you to speak with your supervisor, any senior University official or the Director of Personnel Resources. In situations where reporting through regular channels may be uncomfortable or otherwise inappropriate, the University has selected Ethics Point to provide you with simple, anonymous and confidential reporting. This confidential Compliance Helpline service supplements, but does not replace or supersede, existing reporting methods.

Anyone may make an anonymous report by contacting the University's Anonymous Reporting Line via telephone at (866) 326-2747 or by accessing the Benedictine University Compliance and Ethics Helpline www.ben.ethicspoint.com. Anonymous reports can be made 24 hours a day/7 days a week.

Benedictine University's Whistleblower Protection Policy

Prohibits any form of retaliation against you for making a good faith report.

If you have any questions, contact Nancy Stoecker, Compliance Officer/Director of Internal Audit, at (630) 829-6402.

Compliance Matters communications can be viewed on the Compliance web page.

For more information, visit us at www.ben.edu/compliance.