Campus Ministry at Benedictine University invites all to grow closer to God through a commitment to worship, service, social justice and interreligious dialogue. Through the Catholic tradition we welcome all to work toward a community strongly committed to the common good that is reflective of our Benedictine heritage and identity.

BenU Interfaith Work

- It is part of our Catholic, Benedictine Identity:
  - Nostra Aetate
  - Rule of St. Benedict, Ch. 53: “Let all guests who present themselves be welcomed as Christ.”
  - Benedictine Hallmarks: Humility, Hospitality, Community, Love of Christ and Neighbor

- Ecumenical and Interfaith:
  - Ecumenical: Represents world-wide Christian tradition and promotes unity among Christians.
  - Interfaith: “How our interactions with those who are different have an impact on the way we relate to our religious and ethical traditions, and how our relationships with our traditions have an impact on our interactions with those who are different from us.” (Eboo Patel)

Ecumenical and Interfaith Engagement at BenU:

➔ Interfaith relationships at Benedictine University spring from our Catholic roots, not in spite of them.

➔ “All guests who present themselves are to be welcomed as Christ…” (RB 53.1)

➔ IFYC Framework:
  ◆ Respect for diverse religious and nonreligious identities
  ◆ Mutually inspiring relationships between people of different backgrounds
  ◆ Common action for the common good
