WHY STUDY FINE ARTS AT BENEDICTINE MESA?

Earning a degree in Fine Arts from Benedictine University Mesa will equip students with the transferable skills and opportunities that are necessary for artists to succeed in the real world. Our approach combines the technical training of an atelier school with the intellectual and conceptual edge of a rigorous liberal arts education. In addition, students at Benedictine have the added benefit of learning the business of art through their contact and collaboration with Mesa ArtSpace residents and the Senior Thesis Exhibition experience. Benedictine not only trains students to make great art, but teaches them the business and marketing skills to make a living from their art. They then forge the personal and professional connections that can give them an advantage over others when trying to establish themselves in the highly competitive art world.

At Benedictine Mesa you will find not only academic excellence in a well-rounded liberal arts environment, but also a values-based community in the Catholic, Benedictine tradition. You will receive individual attention and unique opportunities to build a resume that will prepare you to step out into the world upon graduation. Our faculty, who are experts in their fields, will inspire you, while our academic and career counselors will help guide and prepare you for life after college.

A small, private, Catholic school that was close to home and had a Fine Arts major? It was an easy choice for me. Benedictine Mesa has given me the freedom to do what I want with my art. The professor’s have helped me develop a theme and enhance my body of work. I’ve learned not only how to create art, but I’ve learned how to market my art, which is important for any artist who wants to maintain a career. I will be holding my Senior Thesis at the Mesa Art Space, which is a culmination of all of my work up to this point. I can’t wait to continue my career once I graduate. I’ve grown so much as a person and as an artist over the last four years.
